Backyard Bingo

Can you complete our Backyard Bingo? Let’s see what you can spot!

Please remember: Leave no trace & give them space! Remove trash from outdoor areas after visiting. Be sure to view and appreciate wild animals from a safe distance, so skip the selfie.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rock</th>
<th>Butterfly</th>
<th>Turtle</th>
<th>Pinecone</th>
<th>Lizard</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Flower</td>
<td>Bird</td>
<td>Snake</td>
<td>Plants</td>
<td>Deer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Squirrel</td>
<td>Spider</td>
<td>Star</td>
<td>Frog</td>
<td>Stick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flower</td>
<td>Acorn</td>
<td>Plant</td>
<td>Insect</td>
<td>Grasshopper</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Caterpillar</td>
<td>Bee</td>
<td>Crocodile</td>
<td>Ladybug</td>
<td>Leaves</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Backyard Bingo

Can you complete our Backyard Bingo? Let’s see what you can spot!

Please remember: Leave no trace & give them space! Remove trash from outdoor areas after visiting. Be sure to view and appreciate wild animals from a safe distance, so skip the selfie.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Animal shaped cloud</th>
<th>An animal or insect that uses camouflage</th>
<th>Multiple bird calls happening at the same time</th>
<th>Your favorite plant or animal from outside!</th>
<th>Scat (poop) from a wild animal</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A bird of prey – Birds with sharp talons and hooked beaks</td>
<td>Non-native plant – A plant that doesn’t naturally grow in South Carolina, but was planted</td>
<td>A vine</td>
<td>A Conifer – A tree that bears cones and needle-like leaves</td>
<td>New buds on a tree or plant</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Biofacts – Evidence of an animal’s presence, such as fur, feathers, exoskeleton, shell, nest, den, burrow, etc.</td>
<td>Annual plant – Plants that flower and die in one season</td>
<td>FREE space</td>
<td>Native plant – A plant that has been in South Carolina</td>
<td>An animal with three forms of locomotion – Walking, swimming and flying, such as birds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A pollinator – An animal that moves pollen for plants that help them grow</td>
<td>An animal that lives mostly underground</td>
<td>Perennial plant – Plants that come back year after year</td>
<td>A diurnal animal – An animal that’s active during the day and rests at night</td>
<td>An animal with two forms of locomotion - walking and flying or walking and swimming</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>An opossum – the only marsupial in the United States</td>
<td>A nocturnal animal – An animal that’s active at night and rests during the day</td>
<td>An Angiosperm – A plant that has flowers</td>
<td>A seasonal animal – An animal that you don’t see year-round</td>
<td>Animal tracks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

South Carolina Aquarium

20 YEARS
Backyard Nature Challenge

You won’t get bored when you’ve got a backyard bustling with activities! Here’s a great way to stay active outdoors and be in tune with what’s right around you!

Please remember: Leave no trace & give them space! Remove trash from outdoor areas after visiting. Be sure to view and appreciate wild animals from a safe distance, so skip the selfie.

- Find a leaf that’s bigger than your hand
- Make a mud pie
- Create a maze out of sticks
- Take a picture of a bird
- Plant a flower
- Take a hike
- Skip a rock
- Look for cloud shapes
- Stargaze
- Find a frog
- Hug a tree
- Make a leaf rubbing
- Make a fairy garden
- Roll down a hill
- Run through the sprinkler
- Make a bird feeder
- Jump in a puddle
- Start a compost bin
- Build a bat house
- Make a solar cooker
- Watch a lizard
- Create a rain gauge
- Collect and count pinecones
- Use chalk to draw your favorite Aquarium animal
- Listen to the wind

South Carolina Aquarium